

NO! The Rape Documentary

Produced and directed by Aishah Shahidah Simmons, an incest and rape survivor, this groundbreaking feature length documentary features riveting testimonials from Black women rape survivors who defy victimization.

Violence prevention advocates, theologians, sociologists, historians, anthropologists, and other leading scholars and human rights activists provide an interdisciplinary context with which to examine sexual violence in African-American communities. They also explore how rape is used as a weapon of homophobia.

"If the Black community in the Americas and in the world would save itself, it must complete the work this film begins."

-Alice Walker, Pulitzer Prize Winning Author

"I have seen a lot of documentaries about sexual violence in my 15 years as a film programmer, and 'NO!' is by far the most well made, riveting, and poignant... The strength of 'NO!' in reaching its viewers is significant, it's scope and ability to compel are astounding- all women can relate to this film."

-KJ Mohr, Film & Media Arts Programmer, National Museum of Women in the Arts
